Revised & Ratified November 17, 2015

ARTICLE I. ORGANIZATION NAME

This organization, the Inlet Barnstormers Snowmobile Club, Inc. shall herein be referred to as the club.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION AIMS

1. To further the enjoyment of the sport of snowmobiling.
2. To provide means for safe and responsible snowmobiling within and around our community.
3. To educate the general public in the recreational and beneficial aspects of safe snowmobiling.
4. To develop friendships through the mutual interest of snowmobiling.
5. To serve the community in any way possible that promotes or benefits snowmobiling.
6. To promote physical and mental health through snowmobiling.
7. To assist other snowmobile clubs in our area in any way possible at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
8. To maintain and groom trails per the Club's Stewardship Agreement with the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation.

ARTICLE III. OFFICERS

1. The club will have an elected Board of Directors consisting of 11 (eleven) members in good standing. These members will be the President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Club Membership Administrator and five trustees.
2. The President will preside at all meetings, appoint chairpersons of committees, and be an ex officio member of these committees. He, or she, will be responsible for appointing someone to fill the remaining term of any officer or director who terminates their position in the club. The President will act, except as he or she may delegate such authority as the official representative of the club, passing on bills, signing all official documents, and other such duties as are necessarily incident to that office. The outgoing President shall automatically be appointed as an advisor to the incoming President for the new term.
3. The Vice President will act as an aide to the President and will assume the office of President in case of the president's termination, absence or inability from any other cause to act.
4. The Recording Secretary will keep accurate and complete minutes of all meetings and send a copy of the minutes to each officer and director on request. In addition, the Recording Secretary will be responsible for compiling a list of all members present at meetings and reading the minutes of the last meeting.
5. The Corresponding Secretary will carry on all club correspondence
6. The Treasurer will collect all fees and dues. He/she will keep a record of all credits, debits and financial statements for the club. This financial information will be available to all members in good standing at every meeting⁷. All Trustees should contribute to the general well-being of the club.

8. The Club Membership Administrator will keep a paper record of all members of the club, process all applications and keep the online NYSSA database current. He/she will prepare and mail vouchers, membership cards and decals to all members.

9. Upon expirations of the terms of office, any officer or chairperson will relinquish and surrender all records and property of the club to the newly elected respective officer.

10. Any officers or chairpersons with duties and responsibilities of club activities, functions, etc. must give a verbal and/or written report, when requested by the Board. Any applications or requests made on behalf of the club must be signed by the President and copies must be included in the minutes of the Board of Directors.

11. Any member wishing to run for an elected position on the Board of Directors must be a member in good standing and have attended 50% (Fifty Percent) of the previous calendar year's membership meetings. Any current member of the Board of Directors, wishing to be re-elected to a position on the Board of Directors, must be a member in good standing and have attended 50% (Fifty Percent) of the previous calendar year's Board of Directors meetings and also 50% (Fifty Percent) of the previous calendar year's membership meetings.

12. As duly elected representatives of the membership, the Board of Directors may act as a whole upon any matters of dispute or interpretation. All such Board action will be considered final, except where such action would be contradictory to the Constitution.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

1. Applications for membership will be accepted at any time.

2. Any person applying for membership must be 18 (eighteen) years of age and complete an application form.
